Recent Employment: -

Company: Freelance Web Designer

Start date: July 2009

End Date: September 2010

Position: Freelance Web Designer

Specializing in: XHTML, CSS, JQuery and the Adobe Suite

Following the completion of my course, I worked closely with a professional Web Designer, assisting them with a project for a client. Throughout this period I developed into an established web designer. I learnt how to create an industry standard website from the initial design stage using Adobe Photoshop, to uploading the site to the World Wide Web. With the experienced and knowledge I gained from this project, I was able to undertake several freelance websites which were completed to clients specific deadline and specification. Since then I have developed a full portfolio of professional and industry standard sites which can be viewed on my brand new website: <http://www.christianmizon.co.uk/web.html>
